Сводка

This role is based in Santiago, Chile. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support: please only apply if accessible. You will play a pivotal role in shaping the long-term success of a priority brand, translating strategy into meaningful impact for patients and the business. As Product Manager, you will sit at the intersection of insight, innovation, and execution—leading cross-functional teams to drive brand growth, optimize the marketing mix, and elevate portfolio performance in a dynamic healthcare environment. This is an opportunity to influence decision-making, challenge the status quo, and turn data-driven insights into strategies that truly make a difference.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Shape brand strategy and tactical plans to accelerate growth, guided by insights and performance data.
- Develop integrated brand and launch team content; align cross-functional stakeholders around priorities and messages.
- Plan and deliver promotional activities in line with code of conduct and standard operating procedures.
- Own budget, forecasts and expenses; optimize marketing mix to improve cost effectiveness and results.
- Partner with Marketing and Medical to engage centers and key opinion leaders, uncovering market opportunities.
- Track product performance and external environment; propose corrective actions to meet business objectives.

Minimum Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in marketing, administration or related fields.
- Pharmaceutical experience is a must.
- Experience in similar or related positions 3-5 years.
- Previous experience in marketing at least 2 years
- Experience with oncology/hematology areas.
- Advanced English and Spanish is a must.

Why Novartis: Helping people with disease and their families takes more than innovative science. It takes a community of smart, passionate people like you.
