As a Marketing Associate, you will play a meaningful role in shaping how our brands connect with patients, customers, and the healthcare community. This is an opportunity to work at the heart of the Brand Team, contributing to impactful marketing strategies that support the full product life cycle and drive business performance. You will collaborate closely with cross-functional partners, translate insights into action, and help bring innovative campaigns to life—while building strong marketing foundations and growing your career in a purpose-driven organization.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Support brand strategy execution across the product life cycle to drive sales and market performance
- Collaborate with Brand Teams to translate insights into effective marketing initiatives and campaigns
- Contribute to the planning and execution of promotional and digital marketing activities
- Monitor brand performance, sales trends, and market dynamics to support informed decision-making
- Ensure timely reporting of technical complaints, adverse events, and special case scenarios
- Coordinate distribution of marketing samples in line with internal policies and compliance standards
- Support operational excellence through effective project coordination and cross-functional collaboration

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Marketing, Business, Life Sciences, or a related field
- Experience supporting marketing initiatives within the pharmaceutical or healthcare industry
- Strong understanding of brand marketing, campaign execution, and product life cycle management
- Ability to analyze market data, sales performance, and customer insights to support decision-making
- Proven capability to manage multiple projects while collaborating effectively with cross-functional teams
- Fluency in English with strong written and verbal communication skills

Why Novartis: Helping people with disease and their families takes more than innovative science. It takes a community of smart, passionate people like you.
