Сводка

As a Record to Report Senior Specialist, you'll provide expert guidance on financial reporting and accounting matters while owning general ledger activities that support accurate, compliant, and timely reporting. Your work will directly enable confident decision-making, strengthen governance, and ensure alignment with both internal policies and external accounting requirements—making you a key contributor to how Novartis delivers on its commitments.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Partner with managers to support financial activities, informed decision-making, and cross-functional finance projects.
- Provide timely, proactive general ledger support to ensure accurate and complete financial records.
- Maintain fixed asset accounting, including assets under construction and accurate depreciation calculations.
- Prepare financial analyses and reports with strong focus on accuracy, compliance, and timeliness.
- Deliver high-quality data for internal consolidation and external reporting, including statutory and tax requirements.
- Act as first-line support for SAP issues across general ledger, fixed assets, and cash processes.
- Contribute to finance reporting and accounting projects at country or business unit level.

Essential Requirements

- Minimum of five years of professional experience in accounting, finance, or financial reporting roles.
- Bachelor's degree in Accounting, Finance, or a closely related discipline.
- Proficiency in spoken and written English to support global reporting and stakeholder collaboration.
- Strong analytical background with the ability to interpret financial data and provide meaningful insights.
- Curious, proactive mindset with a continuous improvement approach to problem-solving and learning.

Commitment to Diversity and Inclusion

Novartis is committed to building an outstanding, inclusive work environment and diverse teams representative of the patients and communities we serve.
