Ready to step into a leadership role? The Quality Team Leader QA Operations offers the chance to lead a growing QA Operations team across QA microbiology, shopfloor quality, and packaging material release.

In this role, you will ensure GMP-compliant QA oversight of manufacturing operations, microbiological control and material batch release processes. You will, and act as a key quality partner across production and cross-functional teams. If you enjoy tackling complex quality topics, making decisions in ambiguous situations, and driving team performance, this role offers strong impact, visibility, and long-term stability.

About the Role

Job Description

Key Responsibilities

- Lead, coach, and develop the QA Operations team in a growing manufacturing environment
- Ensure compliant and timely release of packaging materials in line with GMP and regulatory requirements
- Provide Quality Assurance oversight for operational activities across the production area
- Ensure implementation and maintenance of the Contamination Control Strategy (CCS) and adherence to Annex 1 requirements within operational units
- Provide QA oversight of environmental monitoring (EM), microbiological controls, and contamination control measures
- Support operations with strong technical quality expertise and practical decision making
- Manage complex cross-functional quality topics, including including deviations, investigations, and ambiguous or grey-area situations
- Drive continuous improvement initiatives and contribute to inspection readiness
- Collaborate closely with Production, Quality Control, and Material Planning teams

Essential Requirements

- Master's degree in a relevant scientific or technical field
- Strong experience in Quality Assurance within pharmaceutical manufacturing operations
- Sound knowledge of current Good Manufacturing Practices and quality compliance requirements
- Experience with batch release, audit management, and inspection support
- Strong understanding of quality management systems and regulatory expectations
- Very good German and strong English communication skills

Desirable Requirements

- Previous experience in an operations-focused manufacturing environment
- Resilience, agility, and confidence working in a fast-changing setting
