Сводка

As Executive Assistant to the Country President, you will play a critical role in enabling effective leadership, decision-making, and operational excellence across Novartis Canada.

You will act as a strategic partner, managing complex priorities, facilitating leadership team effectiveness, and ensuring seamless coordination across internal and external stakeholders. This position requires exceptional organizational skills, discretion, and the ability to operate in a fast-paced, highly dynamic environment.

About the Role

#LI-Hybrid

Location: Toronto, Ontario

This role is based in Toronto, Canada. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support for this role: please only apply if this location is accessible for you.

This job posting is for an existing position.

Key responsibilities:

- Manage and optimize the Country President's complex calendar, ensuring alignment with business priorities, governance, and key stakeholder engagements.
- Proactively anticipate conflicts, prioritize requests, and provide solutions to maximize leadership effectiveness.
- Act as a central coordination point for the Country President's office, ensuring follow-up on key actions, deliverables, and decisions.
- Plan and support Canada Leadership Team meetings, business reviews, and strategic sessions, including event planning, agendas, materials, and follow-ups.
- Facilitate communication flow between the Country President, leadership team, global stakeholders, and internal partners.
- Coordinate executive visits, internal events, and stakeholder engagements with high attention to detail and professionalism.
- Manage confidential information with utmost discretion and integrity.
- Support project tracking, reporting, and preparation of presentations, dashboards, and executive communications.
- Manage domestic and international travel arrangements, itineraries, and logistics end-to-end.
- Handle expense reporting, reconciliation, and compliance with internal policies.

Essential Requirements:

- Experience in executive administration, business operations, or senior administrative support.
- Proven experience supporting senior executives in complex, matrixed, or multinational environments.
- Advanced calendar management, meeting coordination, travel planning, and expense management experience.
- Strong organizational skills with ability to manage multiple priorities and stakeholders simultaneously.
- High level of attention to detail, accuracy, and quality.
- Strong judgment, discretion, and ability to handle confidential information
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Proactive mindset with ability to anticipate needs and solve problems independently.
- AI-savvy mindset with ability to leverage digital tools to enhance efficiency.

Desirable Requirements:

- Experience in pharmaceutical, healthcare, or highly regulated environments.
- Strong exposure to senior leadership team operations and governance processes.

Rewards

At Novartis, we're committed to reimagining medicine together - and rewarding the people who make it happen.

Expected Remuneration Range for role:

CAD 71,487 - 99,240

The base salary offered is determined based on gender-neutral objectives, such as relevant skills, competencies, and experience in accordance with the Novartis pay setting policy and will be reviewed periodically.

The rewards of being part of our team go far beyond base pay and incentives. We also offer a variety of competitive benefits in kind to help you thrive personally and professionally, such as insurance plans, retirement plans, wellbeing resources, and global recognition programs. In addition, we provide flexible and hybrid working options, where possible, and minimum 14 weeks paid parental leave.

Pay equity is a fundamental principle of our employment policy and reflects our commitment to creating a diverse, equitable, and inclusive environment that treats all employees with dignity and respect.
