About the Role

At Novartis, we are reimagining medicine to improve and extend people's lives, and strong financial operations are essential to delivering on that purpose. As a Record to Report Analyst, you will play a key role in ensuring the accuracy, integrity, and timeliness of financial reporting and accounting activities. Working closely with finance teams and business stakeholders, you will provide analytical support, maintain high-quality financial data, and contribute to reporting processes that enable informed decision-making.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Provide analytical support for financial reporting, accounting activities, and finance-related projects
- Prepare accurate and timely financial analyses, reports, and presentations for internal and external stakeholders
- Support month-end and reporting activities while ensuring compliance with accounting standards and controls
- Maintain accurate financial records, including fixed asset and general ledger information
- Assist in identifying reporting issues and recommending solutions to improve process efficiency and data quality
- Contribute to finance transformation and continuous improvement initiatives across the organization
- Collaborate with stakeholders to ensure service delivery excellence and adherence to agreed service levels

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in accounting
- 1-2+ years of experience in financial reporting, accounting, record-to-report processes, or related finance operations
- Strong understanding of financial accounting principles, controls, and reporting requirements
- Analytical mindset with the ability to interpret financial data and provide meaningful insights
- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel and experience preparing financial analyses and management reports
- Fluency in English with strong communication and stakeholder management skills

Desirable Requirements

- Experience working with SAP or other Enterprise Resource Planning systems
- Experience within a multinational, shared services, pharmaceutical, or healthcare environment
