Сводка

Are you passionate about turning data into insights and finding smarter ways to improve how businesses operate? Join Novartis as a Regional Supply Chain Intern and gain hands-on experience supporting supply chain performance across Latin America and Canada. You'll work with real business challenges, analyze key performance indicators, explore artificial intelligence and automation opportunities, and contribute to digital transformation initiatives that help deliver medicines to patients more efficiently. This is a unique opportunity to build practical experience, collaborate with regional stakeholders, and make a meaningful impact from day one.

About the Role

#LI-Hybrid

Location: São Paulo, Brazil

Relocation Support: This role is based in São Paulo, Brazil. Novartis is unable to offer relocation support: please only apply if accessible.

Key Responsibilities

- Analyze regional supply chain performance through key metrics, trends, risks, and improvement opportunities.
- Consolidate and validate data from multiple countries into accurate, structured datasets.
- Prepare recurring reports, dashboards, trackers, and performance review materials.
- Transform operational data into meaningful insights that support business decision-making.
- Identify opportunities to improve reporting processes, data visibility, and KPI management.
- Support automation and artificial intelligence initiatives to streamline repetitive activities.
- Collaborate with regional stakeholders to enhance processes, documentation, and operational efficiency.

Essential Requirements

- Currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Data Science, Engineering, Business Administration, or Information Technology.
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills with a data-driven mindset.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel, including data analysis, preparation, and pivot tables.
- Ability to work confidently with large datasets and identify meaningful insights.
- Advanced English communication skills and intermediate Spanish proficiency.
- Curious, proactive, and eager to learn in a fast-paced international environment.

Why Novartis: Helping people with disease and their families takes more than innovative science. It takes a community of smart, passionate people like you.
