Сводка

Ready to play a critical role in protecting patients and advancing healthcare across the Gulf Cluster?

As a Patient Safety Specialist, you will be at the heart of Novartis' commitment to patient safety, ensuring vital safety information is collected, assessed, and reported with the highest standards of quality and compliance. Working closely with local and global colleagues, you will help strengthen pharmacovigilance processes, drive a culture of vigilance, and contribute to bringing innovative medicines to patients safely.

If you are passionate about making a meaningful impact through operational excellence and collaboration, we would love to hear from you.
