About the Role

Key responsibilities:

Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Integrate payer insights, market intelligence, and evidence needs into coherent HEOR/HTA and Integrated Evidence Plans.
- Develop value propositions, access ambitions, and negotiation strategies while anticipating barriers to access and adoption.
- Coordinate generation of robust economic evidence (cost-effectiveness, budget impact) and preparation of HTA submissions and payer dossiers.
- Build pricing business cases and negotiation scenarios to optimize launch and in-market outcomes.
- Ensure strong cross-functional alignment with Medical, Commercial, Pricing, Finance, Regulatory, and Public Affairs teams.
- Manage engagement with external stakeholders (HTA bodies, payers, and authorities) and monitor policy and methodological changes.
- Support pipeline and lifecycle management, including early access planning, evidence generation, HTA updates, and in-market value optimization.

Essential Requirements:

- University Degree (Science, Economics or similar)
- Italian and English on a fluent level
- At least 4 years in pharmaceutical sector and a minimum of 2 years in Market Access or HEOR roles and /or in Commercial or Medical roles
- Strong technical knowledge in disciplines related to market access such as pricing, HEOR, statistics, epidemiology
- Good clinical and commercial strategic thinking.
- Able to translate strategic insights into practical initiatives to support value of projects
- Knowledge and understanding of payer/HTA/Healthcare system environment and evolution.
- Proven capability in suitable real-world evidence generation and clinical trial design for market access purposes.
